Mothers March On Polio Set Jan. 31

The annual Mothers March on Polio will take place in the Pahokee-Canal Point area Monday, Jan. 31, from 7 to 8 p. m., when members of the Beta Omicron Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority will cover the entire area under the direction of Mrs. C. S. Davis, stopping at all houses where the porch or front door lights are on, the lights to be the signal that contributions to the March of Dimes drive are ready for collection.

Mrs. Jess M. Elliott, general chairman in charge of the local March of Dimes drive, together with Mrs. Roy Vandegrift, Jr., will call on the packing houses for contributions. Mrs. Duke Tucker is in charge of visitations to the Canal Point business houses. Since a chairman for the Pahokee business district has yet to be named, Mrs. Elliott expects the drive to continue into the first week of February.

Farm Bureau Hears S. S. Manager

Robert Apelgren newly installed president of the Everglades Unit of the Florida Farm Bureau, has announced the Farm Bureau is sponsoring a special public appearance of R. C. Gehrken, Jr., district manager of the Social Security Administration office here, Palm Beach, in the Pahokee High School auditorium Tuesday, Feb. 1, at 8 p. m. to answer questions by Glades growers and harvest contractors relating to the new amendment to the Social Security Act extending social security benefits to farm labor.

Anyone who has a question or questions about Social Security is asked to send these questions in written form to Mr. Apelgren at Box 791, Pahokee, as soon as possible in order that they may be forwarded to Mr. Gehrken, giving him plenty of time to study the questions and be prepared to give the right answers on some of the more confusing situations in which the hiring of farm labor is involved.

Not only Mr. Apelgren, but also R. M. Sanders, the new vice president of the Everglades FB, and Melvin Pugh, secretary-treasurer, extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend this meeting.

March Of Dimes To Get Canal Point Fund

The Canal Point Lions Club will turn over the club's tailwister's fund for the entire month of January to the current March of Dimes Drive, it was announced at the club's weekly dinner meeting in the Community Hall Monday night, with President Osmond Uphrengrove presiding.

Carl Crawford, principal of Canal Point Schools, showed a film on "The Growing Menace of Lung Cancer." He was introduced by Floyd Erickson who was in charge of the program in the absence of O. H. Sheppard, program chairman.

Mrs. Jess M. Elliott has been ill at her home on East Main Street this week.

Dr. Williams Heads Hospital Staff

Dr. Salvatore A. Williams was elected chief of staff at the annual meeting of the medical staff at the Everglades Memorial Hospital Tuesday. He succeeds Dr. E. J. Graham, the retiring chief of staff. The staff honored Dr. D. S. Spooner, Pahokee's first physician, who retired from active practice after suffering a severe injury two years ago, by naming him assistant chief of staff. Members of the staff were guests of the hospital at a luncheon served during the meeting.

Funeral Services For Clyde W. Alley

Funeral services for Clyde Wilson Alley, 40, were held at the Pahokee First Methodist Church Monday, Jan. 24, at 10 a. m., with Dr. Rembert A. Guy, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Alley's sudden death from a heart attack at his home in Hollywood Friday evening came as a shock to the residents of the Pahokee-Canal Point area where he had been active in school, civic and church affairs for the past 10 years. He came to Pahokee in 1945 from McAlester, Ky., and served for five years as head football coach, boys' athletic director and social science instructor at Pahokee High School. He then was elected and served a two-year term as city clerk of Pahokee. For the past two years he was principal of Canal Point Schools before resigning last summer to accept the position of Glades field representative for the New York Life Insurance Co. He and his family moved from Pahokee to Hollywood last fall.

Mr. Alley was a graduate of the Morehead State College, Morehead, Ky., and received his master's degree from Morehead last summer. He was a veteran of World War II during which he was severely wounded and was a holder of the Purple Heart medal. He was a member of the American Legion, the Elks Lodge and a former member. ## Boy Scout Week Is Set For Feb. 6-12

As the nation celebrates the 45th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America during Boy Scout week, Feb. 6-12, special recognition should be given to the 1,124 adult Scouters of our own Gulf Stream Council.

Some of these volunteers served on the Council executive board formulating local Scout policies, financing and administering the program and improving our camps. Others serve in their own areas as district chairmen, neighborhood commissioners or troop committees. They are charged with seeing that every boy who wants to be a Scout has the chance and that each Scout unit has a strong, active program.

But busiest of all are the cubmasters, den mothers, scoutmasters, explorer leaders and their assistants. These men and women live Scouting, helping their boys plan and carry-out meetings, hikes, trips and community projects. It is an (continued on page 8)

County Zoning Is Under New Study

The county's zoning committee this week lunched a study of zoning laws in several Florida counties which may be the forerunner of zoning legislation for Palm Beach County.

The commission Monday, authorized its zoning committee which consists of Commissioners Kenneth Foster and Roy Michael, plus County Attorney Harry Johnston, to confer this week with Duval County authorities at Jacksonville to study zoning laws under which Duval County operates.

The committee also plans conferences with officials in Dade, Hillsboro, Leon and Pinellas County to study zoning laws and to compile information which may be used by the Palm Beach County Commission in drafting laws for this section.

The county's plat committee, Commissioners Lake Lytal and Michael, were authorized to make similar visits to study Florida plat laws which may serve as models for drafting legislation for this section.

In connection with sub division developments, Commissioner Lytal warned that residents who buy lands described by metes and bounds are given no protection under present county plat laws. The laws, Lytal said, apply only to subdivisions that are planned and approved by the county commission.

Cattle Industry Is Showing Growth

The cattle industry—both beef and dairy—is experiencing a rapid growth in Palm Beach County and in future years will become a leading factor in the economic stability of this community.

That was a prediction voiced this week by representatives of the county agricultural department in an appearance before the county commission.

Discussing the beef cattle industry, H. L. Speer, assistant county agent, said that the industry is thoroughly established in Palm Beach County and is making progress.

This section, he told the commission, is already the fourth largest producing county in the state even though a comparative newcomer in cattle raising. The industry started here in 1940 and last year some 75,000 head were sold out of the county, Speer said.

The industry faces some serious (continued on page 8)

APPRECIATION

It is with deep appreciation that I express my sincere thanks to the many fine friends who were so thoughtful during my six weeks stay in the hospital. I am deeply grateful for the many beautiful flowers, the cards with their encouraging messages and above all—the many prayers which were offered in my behalf. Through coming years I shall always be mindful of the friendships which were proven during my illness. I am truly grateful. Thanks to everyone.

Rev. John Buell Is Called By Baptists

Members of the Pahokee First Baptist Church have voted to extend a call to the Rev. John Buell, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Highlands, N. C. to serve as pastor of their church according to Mrs. Ora W. Powell, chairman of the church's pulpit committee. The church has been without the services of a regular pastor since the resignation of the Rev. W. Hal Hunter last year. James L. Merrell has been serving as interim pastor for the past several months.

Final Rites Today William C. Baxter

Funeral services for William Clayton Baxter, 71, of Okeechobee will be held in the Pahokee First Baptist Church this Friday at 10 a. m., with the Rev. Carl A. Moberg, pastor of the Little River Baptist Church in Miami, officiating. He will be assisted by James Merrell, interim pastor of the Pahokee church.

Mr. Baxter, who died at his home in Okeechobee Tuesday night on his 71st birthday, was a retired farmer and a pioneer settler of the Glades, coming to Pahokee in 1911, then moving away and returning again in 1916. He then made his home in Pahokee for 34 years until 1950 when he moved to other sections of the Glades and had been living in Okeechobee for the past year. He was a native of Florida, born in Manatee County.

Survivors include the wife, Thelma, Okeechobee; four sons, Haywood and Maurice H. (Frock) of Pahokee, R. C. of Okeechobee and H. B. Baxter of Fort Lauderdale; one stepson, Hilton Ray Humphries of Okeechobee; one daughter, Shirley N. Active pallbearers were Doyle Crocker, Altman Morgan, Ralph (continued on page 8)

15 Are Injured As Truck Hits Canal

Fifteen Negro farm laborers riding in a truck owned by Earl Crossman and driven by Ernest Jackson (Negro) received an assortment of injuries when the truck was driven into a drainage canal on the Muck City road a mile and a half east of Pahokee around 6:45 a. m. Monday to avoid a head-on collision with another truck on a one-way bridge.

The injured were taken to the Everglades Memorial Hospital where four were given first aid treatment and released and the remainder were hospitalized for further treatment. None were critically injured, the three most painfully hurt being Lily Maude Davis, 23, possible internal injuries; Johnnie Mae Thomas, 47, possible collarbone fracture, and Willie James Roger, 20, possible fractured left ankle. All are from Pahokee.

Jackson is being charged with failure to yield the right-of-way, according to Trooper John Hicks who investigated. The damage to Crossman's truck 1953 Ford, was estimated at around $900.

Bolton Drug Store Has New Fountain

A new look has been added to the Bolton Drug Store in Pahokee where an elegant new stainless steel fountain has been installed. The equipment is the newest and most modern that the industry has to offer and Mr. and Mrs. Bolton are being congratulated by their friends upon their forward step to furnish their patrons the finest market affords in fountain service.

The fountain is arranged completely different from the old one and provides space for 50 gallons of ice cream. The new counter is lower and wider and gives added beauty to the entire store which has been given a new coat of rose tan paint.

The sandwich department of the fountain is of modern design and properly refrigerated. The entire fountain is sufficiently refrigerated to care for all products, including syrup, and the cost of refrigeration is a great deal lower than in the old fountain due to the fact that it is modernly insulated.

Blue Devils Win Season's 1st Game

The Pahokee Blue-Devil A team won its first game of the basketball season in its eighth try by whipping the Stuart Tigers, 42-36, at Stuart Friday night, with Forward Thuxman Kemp (10 points) and Guard Chat-Clark (9 points), pacing the Blue Devils' scoring. Pahokee took a 11-6 lead at the end of the first quarter and were never overtaken by the Tigers.

Against the Belle Glade Golden Rams Tuesday night, however, the Blue Devils didn't fare so well, with the Rams taking a commanding lead early in the game, then coasting an easy 58-39 victory on their home court.

In the B game at Belle Glade, the Pahokee second team won a class contest by edging the Belle Glade B's, 28-27. This is the third game won by the Blue Devil B team this season.

The Blue Devils are scheduled to play Pompano there this Friday night. They will also travel on Tuesday night for a game at Fort Pierce and will be hosts to the Lake Worth Trojans in a home game next Friday night.

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

The County Commission this week called for bids on the sale of a $1.1 million in certificates of indebtedness to finance a portion of the county's capital improvement program.

Funds from the sale will be used to pay costs of remodeling the courthouse, the county jail; construction of a county office building and county buildings in the Glades.

In another action this week, the commission voted to ask the legislative committee of the State Association of County Commissioners, to help sponsor a legislative act which would allow the commission to save money on right of way purchases in condemnation suits. Lake Lytal, who made the proposal, said present condemnation laws provide only for payment of land value and damages and do not allow the agency the right to take advantage of the value of benefits to property brought about by road construction.

The board also adopted a resolution commending the leadership of Commissioner Lytal during the past two years when he served as chairman of the board. The resolution pointed out the long and faithful service which Lytal had provided for the county and the loyal and efficient leadership he had given to the other members of the board.

The board also:

Received and referred to the county engineer—bids for lumber and for lighting the east-west runway at Lantana Airport.

Approved an agreement between the county and Holley and Plockleman to act as architects for remodeling the courthouse.

Approved the loan of two voting machines to Palm Beach for a municipal election Feb. 8.

Commended the city of West Palm Beach for its efforts in attempting to get the Florida East Coast and Seaboard Railroads to use a single track through the city.

Declined to take action on a proposed negro subdivision plat because it had not been approved by the Town of Jupiter.

Received resolutions from the DAV and VFW asking that Palm Beach Airbase be made a permanent installation.

Rotarians Hear Of Flood Control Work

William Morse of Kissimmee, chief field representative for the Central and South Florida Flood Control District, was guest speaker at the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Pahokee Rotary Club last week. The speaker outlined the progress being made in the district's over-all flood control program and explained the procedure through which appropriations for this work are approved and passed by Congress. He said President Eisenhower in his recent budget message recommended $8,300,000 to be appropriated for the Central and South Florida flood control program. It is expected this sum will be matched by State funds of $5,000,000 for use in the same flood control program for the next two years. This program, though primarily a water-control project, also will promote fresh water navigation and the conservation and propagation of fish and wildlife, he said.

C. L. Shirley, program chairman, introduced the speaker; also William L. Sylvester, an official from the flood control district office in West Palm Beach who accompanied Mr. Morse to the meeting.

Paul Rardin introduced as guests Councilman Robert B. Simonson of Pahokee, Barney Creech of Belle Glade and Edwin Wagon, Pahokee High School Senior, who was the guest of student member Tommy Elliott.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

Hello everybody Girls and women seeing Arlene Dahl in Hollywood, gaze on her peaches and cream complexion, her red hair, her blue eyes, luscious lips, white throat, rounded contours and her 22-inch waist and her shapely legs. Then they voice some version of "Why did the good Lord give her everything? And where does that leave us just ordinary gals?" The fact is, according to Miss Dahl, her beauty is not exactly accidental as it might appear to some. "As a youngster in grammar school and high school I was no ravishing beauty," Arlene said. "In fact I was a real plain Jane. Toward the end of my high school years I began to develop and to lose some of my awkwardness but it was only when I began to do art work and to model for store in my home town, Minneapolis that I began to realize there was more to beauty than appeared on the surface. Many years ago the great stage beauty, Anne Field, told Esther Ralston who was to portray her in a film, 'As you grow older your soul begins to imprint itself on your countenance for all to see.' Nearly all women know the things they must do to emphasize the others. They know the first rule is cleanliness and careful, freshly laundered and pressed clothes, unrelenting attention to posture, exercise, diet, and rest. To be beautiful women must do more. She must have varied interests including an interest in other people. Just reading the daily paper will develop an awareness of what is going on in the world. If she has the time for only one book a month I'd suggest it be nonfiction." See you at the movies—Mal.

Mrs. Dorothy Simmons was admitted as a patient at the Belle Glade Memorial on Wednesday of this week.

Uncle Sam made the bonds you own an even better bargain!

Now your maturing Series E Bonds can earn interest 10 more years at 3%

PRESENT TREASURY REGULATIONS make it possible for you to collect a return of as much as 80% on the Series E Savings Bonds you already own!

For now those Bonds which you invested in 10 years ago can go right on earning interest for ten more years without your doing a thing about it! That is true not only of the Bonds which you have held for ten years, but any other Series E Bonds which you have invested in in the meantime. And any Series E Bonds which you obtain now will also enjoy the extended earning period. They will start earning interest sooner and mature earlier, too, paying 3%, compounded semiannually.

The Bond you got for $18.75 can now pay you $33.67 . . . a $37.50 Bond will be worth $67.34 . . . and so on.

Of course, any Series E Bond may still be redeemed at any time after you have held it for two months. But, like any other form of saving, your Bonds will mean a great deal more to you if you can hold on to them.

Are you one of the millions of Americans who are saving regularly with Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan? If you're not, why not start now? Invest regularly in Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Ask your pay office to save as little as 25c a week for you, or as much as you are able.

If you can save just $5 a week regularly through the Plan, in five years you will have $1,367.90 . . . in 9 years and 8 months, you'll have $2,860.70 . . . and in 19 years and 8 months, $6,872.45! This Plan is one sure way to save because it saves something out of every check before you have a chance to spend it.

So join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work today. Or, if you are self-employed, start the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. It's safe, it's sure, it's automatic. And you will be helping yourself and your country!

If you want to be paid your interest as current income—
invest in 3% Series H

If you want a good, sound investment which pays you your interest by check every six months, ask at your bank about United States Government Series H Bonds. Series H is a new current income Bond available in denominations of $500 to $10,000. Redeemable at par after 6 months and on 30 days' notice. Matures in 9 years and 8 months and pays an average 3% interest per annum if held to maturity. Interest paid semiannually by Treasury check. Series H may be purchased at any bank, annual limit $20,000.

Pahokee Seeks Bids On Engineering Work

The Pahokee City Council at a meeting Monday night discussed several projects about to get underway. It was announced the U. S. Engineering Corps has approved the use of a strip of land at the foot of the Lake Okeechobee levee in Pahokee between the levee and the city hall as a site for roadside park.

The Council is asking engineering firms to submit proposals for engineering services for the construction of new breakwater harbor in Lake Okeechobee at the Pahokee waterfront. A proposal of engineering services on this project submitted recently by Gee and Jensen, Inc. was not accepted.

The group voted to hold a special adjourned meeting Thursday when it will study plans and specifications for the construction of new sidewalks on Banyan Avenue in the Southeast residential section.

Ranchers and Farmers Go Electric In Branding and Dehorning Cattle

By IRA MILLER

Farm Electrification Bureau

Round-up time isn't quite the same these days on a growing number of cattle ranches. And cowboys are glad of it. The only uses they have now for a camp fire are to keep warm and to light up the strings on their guitars to drum their way through "Home on the Range."

The fire that was so indispensable for heating up the branding iron has gone the way of the Pony Express. And so has the uncertainty of getting the iron hot enough to do a satisfactory job.

For branding today can be done the electric way. So, too, can dehorning. Both the new brander and dehorner, illustrated, are made from the same type of sheathed electric heating elements used for many industrial and household devices. They can be plugged into any 110-volt electrical outlet and will heat up in less than two minutes. The brander and dehorner come equipped with heavy duty cords and molded plugs.

The branding iron can be shaped—or re-shaped—into various designs. It weighs two pounds and, like the electric dehorner, provides even heat throughout the complete operation. Both have been field-tested for over a year and a half. Testimonials from ranchers, farmers, Colleges of Agriculture and veterinarians attest to the value, safety and efficiency of these two irons.

Now—a word about dehorning electrically. Apply the dehorner for at least 10 seconds, rotating the handle slightly to make sure that all horn cells in the hair line around the horns are killed. The heated area will turn a dark copper color. Do not apply medication or remove the horn buttons. The resulting scars will drop off with the buttons in from 4 to 6 weeks. Since there is no loss of blood or irritation, electrically dehorned calves do not have to be isolated.

Honeymooners Are Finding Florida

MIAMI—Florida is fast becoming the number one mecca for American honeymoon couples, and the national bridal magazines are doing their share in spreading the word.

House Beautiful's Guide for the Bride, quarterly magazine devoted to information concerning wedding plans and honeymoon trip suggestions, has instituted a section entitled "Any Questions" just for the bride-to-be. Here prospective brides can write for promotional literature on glamorous honeymoon retreats.

The City of Miami, Miami Beach and a total of six Miami area hotels are featured in this section, along with the City of Sarasota, St. Petersburg and Nassau. The State of Florida is also offering a booklet to the honeymoon couples and, in all, a barrage of promotional material is going forth every day describing the advantages of a honeymoon in the Sunshine State.

Magazine Carries Story On Glades

WEST PALM BEACH — The thrilling story of man's fight against the elements in reclaiming 2,500,000 acres of the Everglades is told in a vivid feature story in the February issue of Coronet magazine.

Written by Vernon Pizer and entitled, "Florida's Fabulous Face Lift," it tells what has been and is being done by the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District and the U. S. Engineers corps in reclaiming an area three times the size of Connecticut and protecting all southern Florida from the threat of floods and hurricane damage.

The article pays tribute to Harold A. Scott, Chief of the Planning and Reports Branch of the U. S. Engineers, and his assistant Oscar Rawls, who worked up the master plan for the gigantic undertaking which is being completed at a cost of approximately $300,000,000.

The February issue of Coronet containing the story will be on the newsstands this week.

Teenage Driver's Contest Slated

TALLAHASSEE — Plans have been completed for the second annual district teenage driver's contest and statewide road race to be climaxed at the State Fair in Tampa on Feb. 8 with the awarding of a new 1955 Ford to the grand champion driver.

Continuation of the driving contest is for the purpose of advancing interest in driver education in schools.

The Florida highway patrol announced four district contests when finalists will be chosen at the rate of two from each of the four districts on Saturday Jan. 29. The semi-finals will be in Tallahassee, Orlando, Sarasota and Ft. Lauderdale.

Two drivers from each of those districts will be chosen and they will go on the all expense paid trip to Tampa for the annual event which has caused widespread interest among young Florida drivers.

Known as the Florida Driver Education Driving Contest, the event is a co-sponsored affair by the patrol, the Florida Association of Insurance Agents, the Ford Dealers of Florida, and is approved by the State Department of Education and Florida high school activities association.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

Divine Love's inexhaustible supply of good for man will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love" at Christian Science services Sunday.

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (494:10): "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need. It is not well to imagine that Jesus demonstrated the divine power to heal only for a select number or for a limited period of time, since to all mankind and in every hour, divine Love supplies all good."

Among the passages to be read from the Bible is the following from Psalms (103:2-4): "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies."

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bradshaw and daughters, Cherry Anna and Millie, are expected to arrive in Pahokee today for a 10-day visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Reel.

Cattle Industry—

problems, Speer pointed out and named the lack of development of winter feed and the reluctance to produce high grade cattle.

The agent said the county agricultural department is encouraging ranchers to develop more pasture land and to store up feed for use during the winter months.

In the past he said, too many low grade cattle have been sold from this area and it is the aim of the department to encourage grain feeding to produce better cattle.

The dairy industry, according to John Causey, assistant county agent, has also shown rapid strides in the past year when five new dairies were started in the county; Causey said he expects at least five more dairies to begin operation here during the coming year.

He said that many of the operators from Dade and Broward county are moving their herds here, being pushed out of their home areas in the press of developing lands for residential use. Milk produced by the Dade and Broward farms, Causey said, is shipped directly back into the home counties and is not used in this area in competition with local dairies.

County Agent M. U. Mounts said his department is continuously trying to "improve the quantity and quality" of its work.

He reviewed the activities of his department for the past year which showed that department personnel had made a total of 2,395 calls at homes during the past year to discuss agricultural problems; that 3,650 residents have visited the agricultural department; that 6,810 had called the office for telephone information.

The department, Mounts said, staged 109 radio shows; had prepared 171 news releases, distributed 9,314 bulletins and had conducted 500 meetings which draw an attendance of some 23,000 people.

The new agricultural headquarters on Military Trail, Mounts said, is fast becoming the center of many activities and that the building is in use both day and night for meetings and gatherings of one kind or another.

After hearing the agricultural report, the commission voted to study the possibility of employing another home demonstration agent to work in the county negro children's home to hold classes for the girls.

The board commended Mounts and his staff for their work during the past year.
